FRANCE TO OVERCOME GERMANY INTO THE NEW MEN'S ECL

11/06/2008 - The ETTU General Secretariat officially communicated today the 2008-2009 Men's European Champions League seeding list.

The new "panel" of teams participating to the main club's event displays a lot of important news: Germany has the top ranked team Borussia Dusseldorf even though just three teams will participate this season (Borussia Dusseldorf, Liebherr Ochsenhausen and Muller-Frickenhausen).

France is the sole country lining-up four teams (Levallois, Angers, Hennebonst and Cestas), whilst Spain will be represented by two clubs (Cajagranada and San Sebastian) as well as Poland (Grodzisk and Ostrzeskow).

One team each for Austria (reigning champion club SVS Niederosterreich), Denmark (Roskilde), Belgium (La Villette Charleroi), Hungary (Lombard Budapest) and Italy (Sterilgarda).

The 2008-2009 official meeting will take place in Frankfurt on June 20th at 2:30 pm.
